Lost but to Be Lost.
She said "I was wrong to think of love in Lent
Or even let him put his arms about her.
But if at Easter he was thenceforth bent, Why, he with his arms and arms could quite surround her.
But forty days of waiting taxed his soul.
At Easter, when to speak to him she tarried.
He had forgotten, quite, the lover's role—In fact, he told her plainly he was married.

"Heavy Realization."

Flattering Comparison.
"Isn't he a cute little fellow?" said the fond mother, proudly exhibiting the cherub.
"Yes," answered her bachelor brother.
"He's funnier than one of those mechanical toys. You don't have to wind him up."—Boston Post.

Circuit Court.
John Combs and Henry Combs were sentenced to the penitentiary for 21 years each for the killing of Thomas Combs, on the Laurel fork of Buckhorn, about two years ago.

The jury in the case against Stephen Brewer, charged with cutting and wounding Jeff Ever-sole, failed to agree.

The case vs. Beech Hargis was called for trial Monday morning and the Commonwealth announced ready, but the defense was not ready and most of the day was consumed in arguing a motion for a continuance by Judge Redwine and J. J. C. Back, for the defense and A. F. Byrd for the prosecution. The court overruled the motion for a continuance.
Tuesday morning Special Judge

John Abner. The defense moved for a change of venue, which was overruled and the selection of a jury was begun Wednesday morning.

exhausted, thirty names were drawn from the jury wheel.
Breck Crawford, the Sheriff, de-

Rice was appointed elisor by

Was it to preach, Algin? If so, we would have been pleased to the writer from Rice's Station here say they are very sweet. . .

To the two questions asked me from Ned, the first question, Luke 12 chapter, 7 verse, only means the cognizance of God that He takes note of every thing, ever so small a matter. In answer to the second question, first Peter, 2 chapter, 9 verse, only means the priesthood of christian believers. . . I feel that so many questions are imposed on The News, but I would like to ask one question. "What did the children of Israel do that they were cast into bondage four hundred and thirty years?"

Farmers in the Southwest are getting rich on the increasing value of their farms.

Not so very many years ago Illinois and Iowa land sold for ten dollars an acre. More recently Nebraska lands sold at that price.
Look at them now. What makes them so high? The land is no better than it was then. What caused the price to go up? People—nothing but people, and lots of them. History will repeat itself in the Southwest—only it will not take so long. The Southwest is growing very fast; much faster than any other section of the United States. The land in the Southwest is just as good as Illinois, Iowa or Nebraska land. But there is more land than there are people, that's the only reason it's so cheap. How long do you think it will take the Southwest to get as many people to the farm acre as Illinois or Iowa have? Just about five years—ten at the very outside.
When that time comes you will have to pay just as much for land in the Southwest as you would pay in Illinois or Iowa.

Why not buy your farm in the Southwest now—when you can get it cheap—cheap enough for you to get a big one? A few years hence you will be looked upon just as the man who owns 640 acres in Illinois is looked upon to-day—as a substantial, well-to-do, leading member of your community.

The low rate excursions via the Rock Island-Prisco Lines the first and third Tuesdays of each month, offer you an opportunity to see the Southwest at very little cost.
Take this opportunity to get away from the cold for a few days, and enjoy the delightful weather the Southwestern farmer is having.

Let me send you some interesting literature about the Southwest read these long evenings. Our books about Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma are full of photographs and reliable information—the very information a man thinking of settling in one of these states ought to have. I'll send you absolutely free any of these books you want.

The Rock Island-Prisco Lines have no lands for sale and are only interested in getting good, energetic settlers for the fertile unoccupied lands along their lines. To such men every help possible is freely given.
Write today and let us help you find a better location.
